Inspirational Novel by New Illinois Author Launched

Harrisburg, Illinois – March, 2002 - Illinois author, Misti R. Jackson has her first novel, "Help From Above" released by Texas publisher, Virtual Bookworm.

Brace yourself for a heart-warming story similar to the well-loved TV show, Touched by An Angel.

Ronald, who is sent by God, on a mission, must help George Billington with his drug and alcohol addiction. While in Ronald's attempts to help George, he finds that George is very independent, ill tempered and stubborn.

When Ronald finally gets George to sit down and talk with him George confesses to Ronald that he has a sister he has not seen in two years. Ronald then decides to set out and search for Kara Billington, George's sister, to see if she can be of help to his mission with George. Upon finding Kara, Ronald convinces her to help him, and he also receives the aide from Kara's minister, Father Timothy Gill. Will the three of them succeed in getting George the help that he needs to recover? Or will they all fail?

Help From Above is available in paperback from Baker & Taylor, Amazon, Barnes & Noble and Ingram.
