

Freelance Writer Misti Sandefur Launches E-zine for Writers

June 13, 2006 -- Misti Sandefur discovered writing at the age of 8, and since that time she has published over 50 articles in print and electronic publications. In addition, Sandefur has also published two books: an inspirational fiction and a writers' reference.

Because of her career in the writing industry, Sandefur has subscribed to many publications for writers (paid and free). Upon reviewing the many subscriptions she has to these publications, Sandefur has learned that over half of them contain the same information, but the occurrence that has troubled Sandefur the most is the publications also list jobs for writers that pay a whopping $5 or less for all rights.

Sandefur still holds most of her subscriptions to those publications, because, at times, they do give helpful and new information. However, Sandefur thought to herself, "I could offer a publication for writers too, one that would give them something different, something fresh and something new."

Sandefur studied her competition for one year, and just recently she surveyed writers and asked them what they would like to see in a new e-zine for writers that they don't often see in other publications for writers.

Based on her research and survey, Sandefur officially announces the launch of her new e-zine for writers. Coffee Break for Writers was created to provide writers with information and news that isn't often seen in other publications for writers.

Information writers will discover within the pages of Coffee Break for Writers includes: unique articles related to writing, marketing and publishing, personal essays from successful writers who chose the self-publishing route, markets that pay rates of $.05 or more per word or a flat rate of $25 or more, writing tips, word tips, writing exercises, interviews with book stores, successful writers, editors, agents and publishers, writing and publishing news, writing and publishing trends, and a whole lot more!

Coffee Break for Writers will be distributed to subscribers bi-weekly, via e-mail and in PDF format. "Writers are always looking for new and fresh information, information they don't often read or hear about, and I'm more than happy to provide them with the up-to-date and new information they're looking for," says editor Misti Sandefur. "I believe our e-zine will be very beneficial to writers around the globe."
